

To Whom It May Concern:

The 86th Annual Meeting of the Academy of Management (AOM 2026) will be hosted in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA, from 31 July – 4 August 2026. All prospective and active members are invited and welcome to attend and engage in this global exchange that advances the field of management and organization.

The purpose of this letter is to provide general information regarding the Academy, the event, and travel to the United States. It does not constitute legal advice. Individuals are encouraged to seek legal guidance for specific circumstances. The Academy of Management (AOM) cannot advise on which visa or travel requirements apply in individual cases and cannot contact embassies, consulates, or government authorities on any attendee's behalf. Additional resources and information on what AOM can provide to support attendees are available on AOM's official Travel & Visa webpage.

About the Academy of Management

The Academy of Management (AOM) is a leading international professional association dedicated to creating and disseminating knowledge about management and organizations. Its Annual Meeting is a premier global gathering, featuring peer-reviewed research presentations, professional development workshops, and networking opportunities for scholars, educators, researchers, and practitioners from more than 100 countries.

Venue and Contact Details

The primary venue for AOM 2026 is the Pennsylvania Convention Center, located at 1101 Arch St, Philadelphia, PA 19107, USA. Some sessions and activities may also take place at nearby venues. For visa application purposes, the Academy of Management may be listed as the United States point of contact using the organizational information provided in this letter.

Attendee Responsibilities

Attendees are solely responsible for arranging any necessary travel, meals, registration, housing accommodations, and paying the associated fees for each. Attendees may require additional travel days outside of the official meeting dates to accommodate international travel, presentation schedules, and full participation in conference activities. These fees are additional and the responsibility of all attendees. An active AOM membership valid through the end of the month in which the Annual Meeting takes place is required to register and attend. No sponsorship is implied, and AOM assumes no responsibility for an individual's stay in the host city. For additional details, please visit AOM's official Annual Meeting webpage.

We look forward to connecting with our members this July!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Taryn Fiore' in a cursive script.

Taryn L. Fiore
Director of Meetings and Conferences
Academy of Management
registration@aom.org